HODGE (Mckllens)

TIVERTON
(Devon)

Plomer: 1726-75, p.127.

MATTHEW HODGE,

Bookſeller and Binder, near the Market Croſs in TIVERTON,

SELLS all Sorts of BOOKS and STATIONARY WARES viz. Writing Paper of all Sorts, Wholeſale or Retail; likewiſe all Kinds of Stamped Paper and Parchment, Vellum for Drum Heads, Letter Caſes, Paper Books of all Kinds for Accompts, Pocket Books, a great Variety of Paper Hangings for Rooms, from Three Shillings to Ten Shillings per Piece, of the neweſt Patterns, Prints of all Sorts for Furniture in gilded Frames, with Glaſs or without, as cheap as in London.

N. B. He makes great Allowances to School-Maſters, and other Gentlemen who are inclined to give away Books of any Kind.

SHERBORNE: Printed by R. GOADBY, MDCCLIX.

T 167506